GENERAL INFORMATION

John Cabot University is an independent, four-year liberal arts university, offering an American undergraduate education in Rome. It is incorporated as a not-for-profit organization in the State of Delaware and is licensed to award its degrees by the Delaware Department of Education. John Cabot University is authorized by the Italian Ministry of Education to operate as a four-year American liberal arts college in Italy. It is governed by a Board of Trustees composed of prominent American and Italian leaders from the academic, government, and business communities. The University is a member of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools, the Association of American International Colleges and Universities (AAICU), and the American Association of College and University Programs in Italy (AACUPI).

John Cabot University is accredited by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. Its programs in Business Administration, International Affairs and Political Science are validated by the University of Wales, and thus recognised throughout Europe.

John Cabot University confers the Bachelor of Arts degree with majors in Art History, Business Administration, Classical Studies, Communications, Economics and Finance, English Literature, History, Humanistic Studies, International Affairs, Italian Studies, Marketing, and Political Science. Students may also choose a two-year program leading to the Associate of Arts degree.

The University has agreements with many U.S. universities, including the University of Notre Dame, Tulane University, Emory University, American University, Villanova University, Michigan State University, Connecticut College, Hiram College, Marquette University, the University of Denver, and Grand Valley State University. Under these agreements, students taking courses at JCU can bring financial aid and receive credit for equivalent courses listed in their university catalogs. Students from over 50 other U.S. universities study at JCU for credit at their home campuses.

John Cabot University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, affectional or sexual orientation, or disability in any of its policies, programs, and services.
